HOW HYPOCRITE ARE INDIANS?

People now a days taking about nepotism, how nepotism is growing in Bollywood and exposing or spreading hate to those actors/directors who are supporting nepotism, the citizens posting, tweeting and sharing about the topic nepotism but have you ever asked yourself that how hypocrite I'm and how I'm also supporting nepotism? Citizens are the real ones who are supporting nepotism, peoples blaming Karan Johar, Salman Khan, Sanjay Leela Bhansali for the death of The great actor Sushant Singh Rajput, but why, have you ever thought of the fact that you ignored the films of Sushant you he gave tremendous movies like Kai po che, M.S Dhoni: The untold story, Kedarnath, Sonchiriya and Chhichhore but what is the use of those films peoples were more interested in Student of the year both, Tubelight, Race 3, ABCD 2, Dhadak like many more movies all the movies have less than 5 IMDB rating but still citizens like to spend more on this shitty movies all this movies box office collection was 200+ crores INR where on other side Sushant all mentioned movies have 6.5+ IMDB rating and more of his movies hardly collected 80 to 100 crores, let's just take other movies like Masaan, Udaan, Sand ki aankh, Trapped, Shahid you might not even know some this movies name this all movies have 7.5+ IMDB rating and collected only 10-20 crores INR and peoples talking about Boycott Karan Johar, Allow outsiders, Give chance to new talent. What was citizens effort to give chance to new actors? None, accept the fact that you also prefer to watch movies of star kids and also you are the one helping them to grow nepotism. Just wait for few months you will forget everything which you are fighting for now a new Karan Johar movie will be released, again new shit from Salman Khan, Ananya Pandey, Janvi Kapoor, Alia Bhatt will be encouraged by you, people will forget all about the Greatest actor Sushant Singh Rajput and will clap watching a new shitty star kid launching, because we are Indians we believe in hypocrisy.
